And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

A check on Johnny Jones, who received a dislocated elbow early in the All-Star game at Fort Worth Thursday, reveals that he is to report to the UT training camp as scheduled and is expected to be ready to play in about six weeks.

The talented youngster was hurt early in the contest and his loss to the North team could have spelled a difference in the outcome. The South won the annual Coaches' All-Star game, 14-0.

It just was not Johnny's week as he had all of his clothes stolen his first day in Fort Worth.

Don't imagine that there were many people that were not surprised at the size of the school district's planned building program. Most of us, including the board members I suspect, were just not prepared for everything to cost so much money.

While the bulk of the money will be spent replacing the buildings lost in the fire, the board has seen fit to bring all of the district's facilities up to standard with this one big issue. And we must agree with them that this is the time to do the complete job rather than to try to come back later on some of the smaller items.

We have already heard rumblings about the track and some of the other items that were included in the overall project. And we are sure that everyone can pick out items that do not interest them as much as some of the other items, but at the same time your pet project may be the one that does not interest someone else.

There are those who apparently feel that since the voters turned down the track issue last year that it should not be included now. This of course depends upon how you look at it.

Last year when the board called the vote on the track project it could well have been argued that the district had a great many other needs just as pressing. Because of this it would be easy to oppose the track project. And indeed no one tried to force the track upon the voters as it was a very soft sell effort all the way. But now that the Trustees are making an effort to come up with a comprehensive building program and meet all of the projected needs of the district, the track takes on a different prospective.

Both from the standpoint of community need and the educational benefits to be derived, the track probably is just as sound a project as some of the other items

All high school boys who will be playing football this fall were issued their shoes and socks here Wednesday in preparation for the start of workouts. Under interscholastic rules, football players are to be issued shoes and socks on the Wednesday before the start of workouts in order that they might break in the new shoes.

The boys will not be issued their full equipment until after they have worked out in shorts for four days.

Coach Bonds has announced a Meet the Pipers

In-Service Training to Open School Activities Here Monday

School activities will begin to pick up next week as teachers will begin a week of in-service training before the start of school Monday, Aug. 18. Teachers will gather at the high school Monday morning for a general faculty meeting and then will be honored with a reception by Supt. and Mrs. Bob Hawes.

Dr. Bill Carmichael of Huntsville, education consultant, will be guest speaker for the general faculty meeting scheduled for 9:15 Monday.

All junior high and high school students will register Friday, Aug. 15. High school students are to report to the high school on the following schedule: seniors—9 to 10:30 a.m.; juniors—10:30 to 12; sophomores—1 to 2:30 p.m.; and freshmen—2:30 to 4 p.m.

Junior high students will report to the junior high building (Reading Center) on the following schedule: eighth grade—9 to 10:30 a.m.; seventh grade—10:30 to 12; and sixth grade—1:30 to 3 p.m.

Supt. Hawes has announced that a number of new teachers have joined the local teaching staff. New this year are: Dennis Anderson, social studies and high school coach; Garry Bartee, science and junior high coach; Larry Bartee, social studies and junior high coach; Ricki Gooch, migrant kindergarten; Sara Lievan, first grade; Becky Lucas, first grade; Brenda Ratliff, English and junior high coach; John Wilhite, resource; Bruce Wilson, science; and Rebecca Brown, first grade.

"As a result of the fire the eighth grade will be housed in the high school," Supt. Hawes said. "B. V. Newberry will be the administrator for this group as well as grades 9-12. All registration and other questions should be directed to him."

"Grade six and seven will be housed in what has been formerly called the 'Reading Center' building," the superintendent said. "Larry Butler will be the administrator for these grades as well as Kindergarten through the fifth grades."

"Marvin Carlton will be reassigned to work on the building program designs, administer the transportation, cafeteria, maintenance and custodial programs. In addition he will be involved in compiling Federal and State reports for submission to the respective agencies," Hawes said.

Hawes said that these administrative changes will be in effect until the building program is completed.

He also announced some other changes for the school term this fall. Buses will run approximately 15 minutes later than last year because of the change in the beginning and ending time for school.

Buses will run their regular routes Monday, Aug. 18, and the lunchrooms will be in operation on this day. Cost of lunches will be the same as last year.

Foursquare Sets Film Here Sunday

The Foursquare Church of Stamford extends an invitation to the public to see a special film at 6 p.m. Sunday. "The Rapture" is a new color film that deals with Bible prophecy relating to the return of Christ.

The film adds a new dimension to the ministry of David Wilkerson, author of "The Cross and the Switchblade."

Hamlin schools will convert from the semester system to the quarter system this year. "Basically what it does is divide the school year up into three divisions instead of two," Hawes said.

The first quarter will end Nov. 11, the second quarter will end Feb. 19 and the final quarter will end May 27.

"Our reporting system will also be changed," Hawes noted. "Report cards will be sent out at the end of each quarter. If a student is having difficulty during a certain quarter an indication notice will be sent to the parents notifying them of the problem. We encourage parents to keep in close contact with their child's teacher concerning their progress."

"We will be operating under less than desirable conditions until such time the proper facilities can be completed," Hawes said. "It is our intention to do the best job possible under these conditions of being overcrowded and inadequate facilities. Your cooperation will be appreciated."

McCaulley Schools to Start Teacher In-Service Monday

Edd R. Farmer, newly named McCaulley Independent School District Superintendent, announced this week that In-Service training will start Monday for the school staff and school will begin the following Monday, Aug. 18.

Teachers are to report to the school at 9 a.m. for the start of the in-service program.

School will start at 8:30 with school buses running their regular routes.

Supt. Farmer requests that any parents with children kindergarten age to please come by the school some time during the week before the start of school.

Farmer said work is nearing completion on the $30,000 building and remodeling project that is being undertaken this summer to bring the school's buildings up to meet state standards. The District is adding a concrete block structure to the present school building to house rest rooms, office space, a science laboratory and storage room. An addition to the gymnasium has been constructed that will include a lobby, concession stand and rest rooms.

The district is doing as much cleanup and repair work as possible before the start of school, Farmer said. He added that more work of this type will be done as the year progresses.

The new construction work is designed to upgrade the district's facilities to satisfy State Accreditation requirements and to meet the educational needs of the district.

City Plagued With Bad Tasting Water

Hamlin city water customers have been plagued with muddy looking water with a strong odor for several days and indications are that the situation will not get any better for several more days, according to Robert Fowler, mayor-pro-tem.

Fowler said that although the water tastes and looks bad it is not a health problem. The water comes from Lake Stamford and both Hamlin and Stamford city officials have been busy checking into the problem but nothing can be done until the lake returns to normal.

The condition was brought about by recent heavy rains on the lake's water shed, Lake Stamford has been low for about two years and the recent rains have brought the lake level up to the point that a great amount of green vegetation is now under water.

Fowler said that Ellis West, superintendent, was keeping a close watch on the problem and that the city would flush out the system as soon as the water coming from the lake showed any signs of improvement.

A regular check of the water is being made to insure that it is not a health problem. Fowler said that the city officials know that the water problem is causing concern among the citizens, but for the present there is not much that can be done.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(July 31, 1925)
The West Texas Utilities Company is having an industrial motion picture made of some of the communities served by them, and Hamlin is being included. These pictures will be shown in several northern states, as well as West Texas, and Hamlin is indeed grateful for the wide and desirable publicity to be gained in this manner. Cameramen of the Southern States Motion Picture Co. will be here today (Friday) to make the shots. A scene or two will be made at the office of the company and others will be made at the First National Bank corner, beginning at 4 p.m. sharp. Come out and "get in the movies" and see how motion pictures are made.

People from far and near will remember the big picnic and barbecue given last year by the business men of Hamlin. It was such a big success that these same business men have decided to again stage a big picnic and barbecue this year. The date has been set for Aug. 13, 14, and 15. A free barbecue will be served to all on the second day of the picnic, being Friday, Aug. 14. Arrangements have been made for over four thousand pounds of meat and this year the meat will be prepared so as to eliminate the usual big waste in barbecuing the meat. There will also be an abundance of bread, pickles, onions, coffee and other barbecue trimmings.

Last week Hamlin had the experience of a skating rink. This week there has been no sound of skates, but hammers and saws have been busy erecting a substantial skating structure, 50 by 90, on the lots just north of the Dillard Hotel. Mr. Ferguson is building this as a permanent affair, arranged to accommodate a large patronage. A large force of hands are rushing every detail of the structure to have the rink ready by this Saturday.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(July 29, 1955)
Although Hamlin Boy Scouts failed to get into the leading winning class in the swimming meet staged Sunday afternoon at the new swimming pool at the City Park, the pool won the admiration and acclaim of about 75 Cubs, Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Northern District of the Chisholm Trail Council. Anson troop No. 22 took first place honors with 45 points; Haskell troop No. 38 was second with a total of 42 points; Hamlin troop No. 43 scored 13 points; and Haskell's troop No. 35 trailed with 12 points.
Another completion five miles west of Hamlin highlighted the oil activity of the Hamlin section of the past several days. The well had a daily potential of 344.05 barrels of oil, flowing through at 24-64 inch choke. Production is from 40 perforations at 4,495 to 4,505 feet with casing set at 4,720 feet. Gas-oil ration was 750 to one.

L. E. (Gene) Prewit of Hamlin was named chairman of the Jones County Infantile Paralysis Association at a meeting of the board of directors Monday night at Anson. Other officers named at the session were: Alfred Berry of Stamford, vice chairman; Robert Cross of Anson, secretary; and John R. Rice of Stamford, treasurer.
Interior face-lifting job has just been completed by Mrs. E. M. Wilson at The Book Shop. Hardwood flooring in the store was extended for about 20 feet to add to the display space, the ceiling was lowered with a new Celotex finish, and woodwork and walls were finished in a shell pink color scheme.

Roller Coaster Spirit

There are days when we feel on top of the world. Everybody loves us and shows it. Nice things are done for us. Sunshine and happiness drenches everything. And then there are other days — when we're blue; people are busy. We're alone. We're afraid. It might as well be raining. Nobody knows the trouble we're in. Needed is a little self-discipline, not a lot of self-pity. We must learn to face the fact that life is not always a flowery bed of ease, and pleasure. Children dodge hard places, responsibility, and painful experiences. A mature person stands on his own two feet under God. Time, insight, and the grace of God can remove mountains — and take away that roller coaster spirit. Begin the road to spiritual maturity by attending church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Neinda Philosopher Says U.S. Furnishing More Detente to Russians Than They to Us

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One touches on a couple of subjects this week, however lightly.

Dear editor:

Never having mastered the old math, I can't tell you anything about the New Math, but I was interested in an article I read the other day about the subject.

According to it, a generation of kids have grown up on the New Math and as a result they understand how math works but they can't figure up what a grocery bill comes to at the check-out counter and what's worse can't even balance a checkbook.

"What's to become of these kids?" the writer of the article moaned.

Obviously he can't see very far. There are thousands and thousands of jobs in Washington for people who can't balance figures. If you want to get thrown out of work, out of office, and out of town, go to Washington with the idea of balancing the budget. These kids have been superbly trained.

Changing the subject, I see that the Russians are buying some more American grain. Will you have The Herald's news bureau chief in Washington ask somebody up there if the Russians ever paid us for the grain they bought two years ago? You know, the 17 million tons they bought at a ridiculously low price with money we loaned them? I don't know why the New York Times' Washington correspondent or NBC or CBS or somebody has never thought of asking the question. It's be the first thing a Hamlin banker would ask.

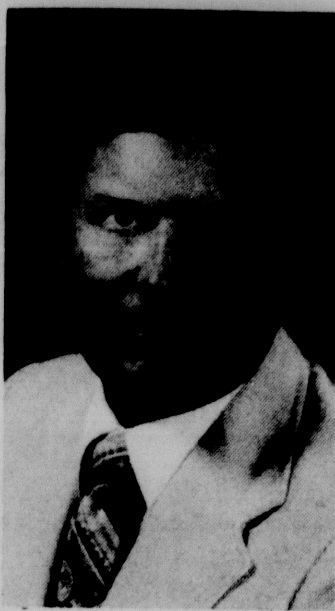

Of course, we want to handle this with the utmost delicacy; can't afford to interfere with detente. You question Russia's credit rating too closely and no telling how mad you'll make Dr. Kissinger.

Speaking of detente, I'm not sure what it is exactly but whatever it is it looks like we're giving a lot more of it to the Russians than they are to us.

By the way, in case The Herald doesn't have a correspondent in Washington, that's all right, Washington doesn't have a correspondent in Hamlin either.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Agent Gives Tips On Harvesting Sunflowers

Jones County Sunflower producers are cautioned not to use harvest-aid chemicals too early because it could have a drastic effect on seed yields, says Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. With the damp weather now prevailing, it will take four-six weeks after completion of bloom for seed to reach full maturity.

By that time he points out, the back of the head and stalk should be lemon yellow in color and most of the leaves will be dead or appear to be dying. The triangular shaped bracts on the outer edge of the head will be brown or turning brown and the seed in the center of the head will be black in color and quite firm.

When these characteristics are noted, the seed is mature but the fleshy head base (which when cut open with a knife looks somewhat like a sponge) will not be sufficiently dry for combining. To avoid adding high-moisture foreign matter to the seed during the combining operation, the head base must be dry, Clayton cautions.

Several weeks may be required for the head base to dry naturally. During this period seed will begin to shatter and some yield will be lost. The best alternative is rush the final drying process through the use of a harvest-aid chemical.

"Unfortunately, at this time none of the available harvest-aid chemicals are cleared for use on sunflowers, Clayton reports. Efforts are under way by the agricultural chemical industry, producer groups and public institutions to obtain a label for at least one such chemical by the time it is needed in the field. The establishment of a federal residue tolerance level for this harvest-aid chemical has senatorial priority in Washington and industry spokesmen are hopeful this petition will be acted on shortly."

Once a harvest-aid chemical is applied, the crop will be ready to harvest in 7 to 10 days. A combine equipped with a sunflower header attachment should be immediately available, because delays could be costly in terms of seed loss to shattering and bird feeding.

The harvest-aid chemical that will be used on sunflowers is a non-selective desiccant. That is, it will kill any plant tissue it contacts including cotton, sorghum and other crops in adjacent fields. Chemical drift is a potentially serious problem, Clayton says.

Since desiccation will, in most cases, be done with aircraft, producers should insist that the aerial applicator pick a calm day for the spraying operation. Aerial applicators can help by equipping their aircraft with the new types of drift reducing nozzles such as "Raindrop" and by using drift reducing agents such as Target or Nalco-Trol. These equipment changes and additives will probably increase the costs of spraying operations. In the long run, however, this could be money well spent if there is danger of damaging adjacent crops, Clayton said.

UNDERSTANDING MENTAL HEALTH

a health column from the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Insomnia

Insomnia, or the inability to sleep a "normal" amount each night, holds real terror for many people.

Sleep performs a vital restorative function and has an important bearing on both physical and psychological well-being. We tend to underestimate its importance until we experience one or more sleepless nights.

Besides its impact on our physical energy level, loss of sleep can have a serious adverse effect on our mood and behavior.

There are so many variations among individuals that it can be misleading to generalize about sleep requirements. The commonly held belief that 8 hours of sleep is "normal" may be true for most people, but certainly not for everyone. What is right for one person may be wrong for another.

Someone who usually sleeps well, but has been kept awake by environmental conditions—such as outside noises, too little air, an uncomfortable bed—or by psychological stress or a discomforting medical problem, will usually not have any trouble sleeping once the disturbing condition has been remedied. Such sleeplessness is called "transient insomnia."

"Chronic insomnia," on the other hand, is not related to any such identifiable factor. Yet it occurs in as many as 15 percent of the population.

When patients suffering from chronic insomnia—some say they haven't slept in days or months—are observed in a hospital, it is usually found that they in fact do sleep. This apparent contradiction between belief and fact has been explained through study of brain recordings from such patients. These indicate the deep sleep that normally takes place in the early part of the night is diminished in insomniacs. The patient actually gets more sleep than he believes he does, but the quality of that sleep is poor.

Treatment of chronic insomnia depends upon the recommendations of a physician. But some general guidelines that may help insomniacs overcome sleeplessness include: Eat moderately and sensibly. Avoid heavy meals late at night, and avoid stimulants. Take moderate exercise. Avoid daytime naps. Have a relaxing routine before bed, perhaps reading or watching TV. If sleep doesn't come, don't lie in bed and worry about it. Instead, get up and read or watch a late-night TV movie until drowsy.

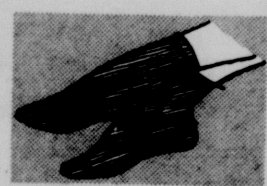

A physician will prescribe drugs if he feels they are needed to induce sleep. Sleeping pills are sometimes helpful on a temporary basis, but should be taken only under medical supervision.

Farabee Praises Rural School Organization

Wichita Falls—State Senator Ray Farabee said today that he was glad to see recent efforts to organize rural school districts. Several large meetings of school officials have been held across the state recently in an effort to organize school districts in non-metropolitan areas to more effectively represent their interests at the state level.

Senator Farabee told nearly 400 West Texas school officials at a recent meeting in Munday that an organization of rural school districts would give non-metropolitan legislators increased support when representing the interests of those districts in the Legislature. Farabee stressed that school finance is still the state's number one problem. "We can't afford to leave politics to those who go out and run for office," Farabee said. "We have to organize to make better legislation."

During the meeting the inequities of the present ad valorem tax structure were pointed out. Organizers of the rural school effort pointed out that real property accounts for only 25 percent of the total amount of property in urban areas. Since ad valorem taxes are based on real property, as opposed to other forms of wealth such as stocks and bonds, a disproportionate tax burden is placed on rural areas. Various state and local officials were in attendance at the meeting. State officials included House Speaker Bill Clayton of Springlake, Senator Farabee, Senator Kent Hance of Lubbock, Representative Bill Heatly of Paducah, Representative Mike Ezzell of Snyder, and Representative Elmer Martin of Colorado City.

We deal with two types of energy:

1. HUMAN

Many businesses and industries are moving into this region from other parts of the country. They've found that we have a willing work force, a sensible tax structure, favorable weather and adequate energy sources.

New industries don't just move into your town by accident. Sometimes years of personal contacts by your Chamber of Commerce industrial team and the industrial development experts at Lone Star Gas are carried on before the final decision is reached to relocate in your town.

Your Chamber's industrial team, aided by the state, county and utility teams, study the area to make sure the right industry is matched with the right plant site location.

A new business or industry helps your town's economy by providing new jobs and by adding tax dollars for schools and hospitals and other community services.

So when you hear about a new industry moving into your town, call your Chamber of Commerce and thank them for another job well done.

2. NATURAL

To our customers, Lone Star is "the gas company." We serve over one million customers in about 400 cities and towns in Texas. That's a lot of customers . . . and a lot of responsibility. People depend on Lone Star Gas to have the available natural gas energy whenever and wherever they need it. And we've provided that energy for over 60 years through investments in pipelines, compressor stations and the purchase of new, more expensive gas supplies.

Natural gas produced in the United States provides over ONE-HALF of this country's industrial energy requirements. And the availability of adequate natural gas energy is one of the primary reasons that more and more businesses and industries are moving into this part of the country.

Lone Star Gas is committed to helping your town attract and keep industries that can provide jobs and help the economy. It's just good business for all of us.

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

A check on Johnny Jones, who received a dislocated elbow early in the All-Star game at Fort Worth Thursday, reveals that he is to report to the UT training camp as scheduled and is expected to be ready to play in about six weeks.

The talented youngster was hurt early in the contest and his loss to the North team could have spelled a difference in the outcome. The South won the annual Coaches' All-Star game, 14-0.

It just was not Johnny's week as he had all of his clothes stolen his first day in Fort Worth.

Don't imagine that there were many people that were not surprised at the size of the school district's planned building program. Most of us, including the board members I suspect, were just not prepared for everything to cost so much money.

While the bulk of the money will be spent replacing the buildings lost in the fire, the board has seen fit to bring all of the district's facilities up to standard with this one big issue. And we must agree with them that this is the time to do the complete job rather than to try to come back later on some of the smaller items.

We have already heard rumblings about the track and some of the other items that were included in the overall project. And we are sure that everyone can pick out items that do not interest them as much as some of the other items, but at the same time your pet project may be the one that does not interest someone else.

There are those who apparently feel that since the voters turned down the track issue last year that it should not be included now. This of course depends upon how you look at it.

Last year when the board called the vote on the track project it could well have been argued that the district had a great many other needs just as pressing. Because of this it would be easy to oppose the track project. And indeed no one tried to force the track upon the voters as it was a very soft sell effort all the way. But now that the Trustees are making an effort to come up with a comprehensive building program and meet all of the projected needs of the district, the track takes on a different prospective.

Both from the standpoint of community need and the educational benefits to be derived, the track probably is just as sound a project as some of the other items

Football Workouts To Start Monday

The Piper football team, under Coach David Bonds, will begin work in earnest Monday to defend their District 6-AA Championship. The boys will begin two-a-day workouts Monday morning at 7.

All high school boys who will be playing football this fall were issued their shoes and socks here Wednesday in preparation for the start of workouts. Under interscholastic rules, football players are to be issued shoes and socks on the Wednesday before the start of workouts in order that they might break in the new shoes.

The boys will not be issued their full equipment until after they have worked out in shorts for four days.

Coach Bonds has announced a Meet the Pipers night for Saturday, Aug. 16 when he will hold an intrasquad scrimmage. The scrimmage with Seymour scheduled for Friday, Aug. 22, has been moved to Hamlin. The following Friday the teams will travel to Olney for their second scrimmage.

The first game will be at Rotan on Friday, Sept. 5, and the first home game will be with Haskell on Friday, Sept. 12.

Season reserve seat tickets will go on sale at the high school Monday for those who have had reserved seats in the past, according to B. V. Newberry, Principal. Advance reserved seats for the five home games will be $1.50 per game or $7.50 for the season. The tickets will be $2.00 if bought individually.

Aspermont Nursing Home Sets Open House Saturday

The 40-room facility is owned and operated by the Missionary Baptist Foundation of America, Inc., a nonprofit corporation located in Lubbock.

A local board of governors will include area persons appointed by the Stonewall County Commissioners Court. Travis Hartgraves is president; George Rhoads, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Riddle, secretary; and J. D. Parker and Mrs. Doris Branch, committee workers.

In-Service Training to Open School Activities Here Monday

School activities will begin to pick up next week as teachers will begin a week of in-service training before the start of school Monday, Aug. 18. Teachers will gather at the high school Monday morning for a general faculty meeting and then will be honored with a reception by Supt. and Mrs. Bob Hawes.

Dr. Bill Carmichael of Huntsville, education consultant, will be guest speaker for the general faculty meeting scheduled for 9:15 Monday.

All junior high and high school students will register Friday, Aug. 15. High school students are to report to the high school on the following schedule: seniors—9 to 10:30 a.m.; juniors—10:30 to 12; sophomores—1 to 2:30 p.m.; and freshmen—2:30 to 4 p.m.

Junior high students will report to the junior high building (Reading Center) on the following schedule: eighth grade—9 to 10:30 a.m.; seventh grade—10:30 to 12; and sixth grade—1:30 to 3 p.m.

Supt. Hawes has announced that a number of new teachers have joined the local teaching staff. New this year are: Dennis Anderson, social studies and high school coach; Garry Bartee, science and junior high coach; Larry Bartee, social studies and junior high coach; Ricki Gooch, migrant kindergarten; Sara Lievan, first grade; Brenda Ratliff, English and junior high coach; John Wilhite, resource; Bruce Wilson, science; and Rebecca Brown, first grade.

"As a result of the fire the eighth grade will be housed in the high school," Supt. Hawes said. "B. V. Newberry will be the administrator for this group as well as grades 9-12. All registration and other questions should be directed to him."

"Grade six and seven will be housed in what has been formerly called the 'Reading Center' building," the superintendent said. "Larry Butler will be the administrator for these grades as well as Kindergarten through the fifth grades."

"Marvin Carlton will be reassigned to work on the building program designs, administer the transportation, cafeteria, maintenance and custodial programs. In addition he will be involved in compiling Federal and State reports for submission to the respective agencies," Hawes said.

Hawes said that these administrative changes will be in effect until the building program is completed.

He also announced some other changes for the school term this fall. Buses will run approximately 15 minutes later than last year because of the change in the beginning and ending time for school.

Buses will run their regular routes Monday, Aug. 18, and the lunchrooms will be in operation on this day. Cost of lunches will be the same as last year.

Foursquare Sets Film Here Sunday

The Foursquare Church of Stamford extends an invitation to the public to see a special film at 6 p.m. Sunday. "The Rapture" is a new color film that deals with Bible prophecy relating to the return of Christ.

The film adds a new dimension to the ministry of David Wilkerson, author of "The Cross and the Switchblade."

Hamlin schools will convert from the semester system to the quarter system this year. "Basically what it does is divide the school year up into three divisions instead of two," Hawes said.

The first quarter will end Nov. 11, the second quarter will end Feb. 19 and the final quarter will end May 27.

"Our reporting system will also be changed," Hawes noted. "Report cards will be sent out at the end of each quarter. If a student is having difficulty during a certain quarter an indication notice will be sent to the parents notifying them of the problem. We encourage parents to keep in close

"We will be operating under less than desirable conditions until such time the proper facilities can be completed," Hawes said. "It is our intention to do the best job possible under these conditions of being overcrowded and inadequate facilities. Your cooperation will be appreciated."

McCaulley Schools to Start Teacher In-Service Monday

Edd R. Farmer, newly named McCaulley Independent School District Superintendent, announced this week that In-Service training will start Monday for the school staff and school will begin the following Monday, Aug. 18.

Teachers are to report to the school at 9 a.m. for the start of the in-service program.

School will start at 8:30 with school buses running their regular routes.

Supt. Farmer requests that any parents with children kindergarten age to please come by the school some time during the week before the start of school.

Farmer said work is nearing completion on the $30,000 building and remodeling project that is being undertaken this summer to bring the school's buildings up to meet state standards. The District is adding a concrete block structure to the present school building to house rest rooms, office space, a science laboratory and storage room. An addition to the gymnasium has been constructed that will include a lobby, concession stand and rest rooms.

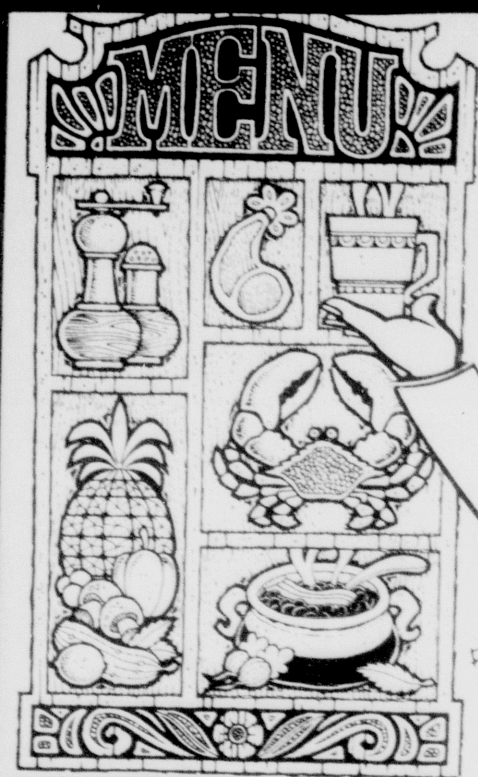

The district is doing as much cleanup and repair work as possible before the start of school, Farmer said. He added that more work of this type will be done as the year progresses.

The new construction work is designed to upgrade the district's facilities to satisfy State Accreditation requirements and to meet the educational needs of the district.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO
The West Texas Utilities Company is having an industrial motion picture made of some of the communities served by them, and Hamlin is being included. These pictures will be shown in several northern states, as well as West Texas, and Hamlin is indeed grateful for the wide and desirable publicity to be gained in this manner. Cameramen of the Southern States Motion Picture Co. will be here today (Friday) to make the shots. A scene or two will be made at the office of the company and others will be made at the First National Bank corner, beginning at 4 p.m. sharp. Come out and "get in the movies" and see how motion pictures are made.

People from far and near will remember the big picnic and barbecue given last year by the business men of Hamlin. It was such a big success that these same business men have decided to again stage a big picnic and barbecue this year. The date has been set for Aug. 13, 14, and 15. A free barbecue will be served to all on the second day of the picnic, being Friday, Aug. 14. Arrangements have been made for over four thousand pounds of meat and this year the meat will be prepared so as to eliminate the usual big waste in barbecuing the meat. There will also be an abundance of bread, apples, onions, coffee and other barbecue trimmings.
Last week Hamlin had the experience of a skating rink. This week there has been no sound of skates, but hammers and saws have been busy erecting a substantial skating structure, 50 by 90, on the lots just north of the Dillard Hotel. Mr. Ferguson is building this as a permanent affair, arranged to accommodate a large patronage. A large force of hands are finishing every detail of the structure to have the rink ready by this Saturday.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(July 29, 1955)
Although Hamlin Boy Scouts failed to get to the leading winning class in the swimming meet staged Sunday afternoon at the new swimming pool at the City Park, the club won the admiration and acclaim of the 75 Cubs, Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Northern District of the Chisholm Trail Council. Anson troop No. 22 took first place with 45 points; Haskell troop No. 38 second with a total of 42 points; Hamlin troop No. 43 scored 13 points; and Haskell's troop No. 35 trailed with 12 points.
Another completion five miles west of Hamlin highlighted the oil activity of the Hamlin section of the past several days. The well had a daily potential of 344.05 barrels of flowing through at 24-64 inch choke. Production is from 40 perforations at 4,495 to 4,505 feet with casing set at 4,720 feet. Gas-oil ration was 750 to one.

L. E. (Gene) Prewit of Hamlin was named chairman of the Jones County Infantile Paralysis Association at a meeting of the board of directors Monday night at Anson. Other officers named at the session were: Alfred Berry of Stamford, vice chairman; Robert Cross of Anson, secretary; and John R. Rice of Stamford, treasurer.
Interior face-lifting job has just been completed by Mrs. E. M. Wilson at The Book Shop. Hardwood flooring in the store was extended for about 20 feet to add to the display space, the ceiling was lowered with a new Celotex finish, and woodwork and walls were finished in a shell pink color scheme.

TEN YEARS AGO
(July 29, 1965)
Holman Jones, member of the Hamlin FFA Chapter, received his Lone Star Farmer Degree at the recent State FFA Convention held in Houston. This is the highest award the Texas Association can bestow upon its members. Also attending the state convention were Donnie Jones and chapter advisor, Milburn Wink.
Ivy and Fritz Witt, local caller and square dance teacher of Hamlin, have been asked to act as master of ceremonies for the Haskell County Hey-Day Square Dance Contest, to be held in Haskell, Aug. 7, at 6 p.m. The Hamlin Square dancers dance each Friday night at the American Legion Hall in Aspermont with Aspermont dancers. All visitors are welcome.

The board could not find a place to cut this project back because all of it is needed by the district and we feel sure that any voter who has concern for the district and its school children at heart will feel the same way.
Sure-it is going to cost you more in taxes but nothing compared to what they take away from you in Washington each year and at least here at home you can see where your money is going.

Roller Coaster Spirit

There are days when we feel on top of the world. Everybody loves us and shows it. Nice things are done for us. Sunshine and happiness drenches everything. And then there are other days — when we're blue; people are busy. We're alone. We're afraid. It might as well be raining. Nobody knows the trouble we're in. Needed is a little self-discipline, not a lot of self-pity. We must learn to face the fact that life is not always a flowery bed of ease, and pleasure. Children dodge hard places, responsibility, and painful experiences. A mature person stands on his own two feet under God. Time, insight, and the grace of God can remove mountains — and take away that roller coaster spirit. Begin the road to spiritual maturity by attending church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Neinda Philosopher Says U.S. Furnishing More Detente to Russians Than They to Us

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One touches on a couple of subjects this week, however lightly.

Dear editor:

Never having mastered the old math, I can't tell you anything about the New Math, but I was interested in an article I read the other day about the subject.

According to it, a generation of kids have grown up on the New Math and as a result they understand how math works but they can't figure up what a grocery bill comes to at the check-out counter and what's worse can't even balance a checkbook.

"What's to become of these kids?" the writer of the article moaned.

Obviously he can't see very far. There are thousands and thousands of jobs in Washington for people who can't balance figures. If you want to get thrown out of work, out of office, and out of town, go to Washington with the idea of balancing the budget. These kids have been superbly trained.

Changing the subject, I see that the Russians are buying some more American grain. Will you have The Herald's news bureau chief in Washington ask somebody up there if the Russians ever paid us for the grain they bought two years ago? You know, the 17 million tons they bought at a ridiculously low price with money we loaned them? I don't know why the New York Times' Washington correspondent or NBC or CBS or somebody has never thought of asking the question. It's be the first thing a Hamlin banker would ask.

Of course, we want to handle this with the utmost

delicacy; can't afford to interfere with detente. You question Russia's credit rating too closely and no telling how mad you'll make Dr. Kissinger.

Speaking of detente, I'm not sure what it is exactly but whatever it is it looks like we're giving a lot more of it to the Russians than they are to us.

By the way, in case The Herald doesn't have a correspondent in Washington, that's all right, Washington doesn't have a correspondent in Hamlin either.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Agent Gives Tips On Harvesting Sunflowers

Jones County Sunflower producers are cautioned not to use harvest-aid chemicals too early because it could have a drastic effect on seed yields, says Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. With the damp weather now prevailing, it will take four-six weeks after completion of bloom for seed to reach full maturity.

By that time he points out, the back of the head and stalk should be lemon yellow in color and most of the leaves will be dead or appear to be dying. The triangular shaped bracts on the outer edge of the head will be brown or turning brown and the seed in the center of the head will be black in color and quite firm.

When these characteristics are noted, the seed is mature but the fleshy head base (which when cut open with a knife looks somewhat like a sponge) will not be sufficiently dry for combining. To avoid adding high-moisture foreign matter to the seed during the combining operation, the head base must be dry, Clayton cautions.

Several weeks may be required for the head base to dry naturally. During this period seed will begin to shatter and some yield will be lost. The best alternative is rush the final drying process through the use of a harvest-aid chemical.

"Unfortunately, at this time none of the available harvest-aid chemicals are cleared for use on sunflowers, Clayton reports. Efforts are under way by the agricultural chemical industry, producer groups and public institutions to obtain a label for at least one such chemical by the time it is needed in the field. The establishment of a federal residue tolerance level for this harvest-aid chemical has senatorial priority in Washington and industry spokesmen are hopeful this petition will be acted on shortly."

Once a harvest-aid chemical is applied, the crop will be ready to harvest in 7 to 10 days. A combine equipped with a sunflower header attachment should be immediately available, because delays could be costly in terms of seed loss to shattering and bird feeding.

The harvest-aid chemical that will be used on sunflowers is a non-selective desiccant. That is, it will kill any plant tissue it contacts including cotton, sorghum and other crops in adjacent fields. Chemical drift is a potentially serious problem, Clayton says.

Since desiccation will, in most cases, be done with aircraft, producers should insist that the aerial applicator pick a calm day for the spraying operation. Aerial applicators can help by equipping their aircraft with the new types of drift reducing nozzles such as "Raindrop" and by using drift reducing agents such as Target or Nalco-Trol. These equipment changes and additives will probably increase the costs of spraying operations. In the long run, however, this could be money well spent if there is danger of damaging adjacent crops, Clayton said.

UNDERSTANDING MENTAL HEALTH

a health column from the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Insomnia

Insomnia, or the inability to sleep a "normal" amount each night, holds real terror for many people.

Sleep performs a vital restorative function and has an important bearing on both physical and psychological well-being. We tend to underestimate its importance until we experience one or more sleepless nights.

Besides its impact on our physical energy level, loss of sleep can have a serious adverse effect on our mood and behavior.

There are so many variations among individuals that it can be misleading to generalize about sleep requirements. The commonly held belief that 8 hours of sleep is "normal" may be true for most people, but certainly not for everyone. What is right for one person may be wrong for another.

Someone who usually sleeps well, but has been kept awake by environmental conditions—such as outside noises, too little air, an uncomfortable bed—or by psychological stress or a discomforting medical problem, will usually not have any trouble sleeping once the disturbing condition has been remedied. Such sleeplessness is called "transient insomnia."

"Chronic insomnia," on the other hand, is not related to any such identifiable factor. Yet it occurs in as many as 15 percent of the population.

When patients suffering from chronic insomnia—some say they haven't slept in days or months—are observed in a hospital, it is usually found that they in fact do sleep. This apparent contradiction between belief and fact has been explained through study of brain recordings from such patients. These indicate the deep sleep that normally takes place in the early part of the night is diminished in insomniacs. The patient actually gets more sleep than he believes he does, but the quality of that sleep is poor.

Treatment of chronic insomnia depends upon the recommendations of a physician. But some general guidelines that may help insomniacs overcome sleeplessness include: Eat moderately and sensibly. Avoid heavy meals late at night, and avoid stimulants. Take moderate exercise. Avoid daytime naps. Have a relaxing routine before bed, perhaps reading or watching TV. If sleep doesn't come, don't lie in bed and worry about it. Instead, get up and read or watch a late-night TV movie until drowsy.

A physician will prescribe drugs if he feels they are needed to induce sleep. Sleeping pills are sometimes helpful on a temporary basis, but should be taken only under medical supervision.

Farabee Praises Rural School Organization

Wichita Falls—State Senator Ray Farabee said today that he was glad to see recent efforts to organize rural school districts. Several large meetings of school officials have been held across the state recently in an effort to organize school districts in non-metropolitan areas to more effectively represent their interests at the state level.

Senator Farabee told nearly 400 West Texas school officials at a recent meeting in Munday that an organization of rural school districts would give non-metropolitan legislators increased support when representing the interests of those districts in the Legislature. Farabee stressed that school finance is still the state's number one problem. "We can't afford to leave politics to those who go out and run for office,"

Farabee said. "We have to organize to make better legislation."

During the meeting the inequities of the present ad valorem tax structure were pointed out. Organizers of the rural school effort pointed out that real property accounts for only 25 percent of the total amount of property in urban areas. Since ad valorem taxes are based on real property, as opposed to other forms of wealth such as stocks and bonds, disproportionate tax burden is placed on rural areas.

Various state and local officials were in attendance at the meeting. State officials included House Speaker Bill Clayton of Springlake, Senator Farabee, Senator Kent Hance of Lubbock, Representative Bill Heatly of Paducah, Representative Mike Ezzell of Snyder, and Representative Elmer Martin of Colorado City.

We deal with two types of energy:

1. HUMAN

Many businesses and industries are moving into this region from other parts of the country. They've found that we have a willing work force, a sensible tax structure, favorable weather and adequate energy sources.

New industries don't just move into your town by accident. Sometimes years of personal contacts by your Chamber of Commerce industrial team and the industrial development experts at Lone Star Gas are carried on before the final decision is reached to relocate in your town.

Your Chamber's industrial team, aided by the state, county and utility teams, study the area to make sure the right industry is matched with the right plant site location.

A new business or industry helps your town's economy by providing new jobs and by adding tax dollars for schools and hospitals and other community services.

So when you hear about a new industry moving into your town, call your Chamber of Commerce and thank them for another job well done.

2. NATURAL

To our customers, Lone Star is "the gas company." We serve over one million customers in about 400 cities and towns in Texas. That's a lot of customers ... and a lot of responsibility. People depend on Lone Star Gas to have the available natural gas energy whenever and wherever they need it. And we've provided that energy for over 60 years through investments in pipelines, compressor stations and the purchase of new, more expensive gas supplies.

Natural gas produced in the United States provides over ONE-HALF of this country's industrial energy requirements. And the availability of adequate natural gas energy is one of the primary reasons that more and more businesses and industries are moving into this part of the country.

Lone Star Gas is committed to helping your town attract and keep industries that can provide jobs and help the economy. It's just good business for all of us.
